Dear Anuraag,

Thank you for applying for admission to Murray State University. Your application for admission and supporting information has been carefully reviewed by the department. Unfortunately, we are unable to offer you admission at this time.

In the future, should your academic record reflect new coursework or test scores, please submit new documents to the Office of Admissions for reconsideration of your application status.

We wish you well as you work towards your educational goals.

Sincerely,

The International Admissions Team
Murray State University
