Dear Samratdeep,

Congratulations! Based on your educational background and determination to pursue higher education, we are offering you admission into the California School of Management and Leadership (CSML) Master of Information Systems and Technology program at the San Diego campus. Your admission to the program is based on your strength as a candidate, and our belief that your educational goals are compatible with our education and training. We look forward to you joining March 4th, 2024.

I reinforce a few points below as it is important for students to study and graduate from a university which is recognized for several decades and has a long history of success and stability.

Brief History: Alliant International University has a history of more than 100 years of academic excellence and has been accredited by WASC Senior College and University Commission for more than three decades. The business school is additionally accredited by the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP).

Diverse disciplines, students, and core faculty: Alliant has schools in Psychology, Education, Forensics, Law and Business and has a student population of just above 5000 in the 2021-22 academic year comprised of roughly 92% students from US and 8% international students from 50 foreign countries. Alliant currently has about 65 core faculty members with doctorate degrees. We have 6 campuses in California (San Diego, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Fresno, Sacramento, and Irvine).

Alumni: Given our long history, upon graduation you will join the large, graduated base of successful alumni working in US and in several countries across the globe. Some distinguished alumni include US House Representative Judy Chu from California, Rear Admiral Barry Black, the 62nd Chaplain of the US Senate, and Dan McAllister the San Diego Country Treasurer-Tax Collector. CSML (California School of Management and Leadership), Alliant's business school proudly includes in its legacy distinguished faculty, notably Dr. Igor Ansoff, the founder of the environmental turbulence theory for strategic management, Dr. Efraim Turban, a stalwart in decision-making research, and Dr. John Walker, a recognized name in the hospitality segment

Rigor and support for your success: We emphasize rigorous academic and learning experiences. We are confident your learning experience in our program will be rewarding and successful! Our team of faculty, administration, and advisors will work closely with you to ensure you are fully supported during your time with Alliant. We believe as a new student in the California School of Management and Leadership, you will enjoy extraordinary opportunities to learn and achieve outstanding professional preparation. We are confident that through your future accomplishments you will add luster to CSML's reputation of excellence.

Congratulations again and we look forward to having you join the CSML community and wish you the best in your studies. Again, my congratulations and welcome to the Alliant family!

Sincerely,

Dr. Rachna Kumar

Dean of California School of Management & Leadership
