Refer to the Table of Cost Estimates and indicate the amount of money in U.S. dollars that will be available to you for all years of attendance/degree. A Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20) may only be issued when the student has been admitted and shows satisfactory financial arrangements for meeting the expenses of his/her entire program of study at South Dakota State University. See the appropriate cost estimate (graduate or undergraduate) for estimated costs of attendance by education level. Funds for dependents accompanying you must also be included for the total years the you will be studying. SDSU retains the right to require an advance deposit from students in countries that are experiencing difficulties in foreign exchange. The I-134 will NOT be accepted by SDSU as financial certification.
